Cory Allen Reeves

Master Sergeant Exposed As White Supremacist Organizer

This article was contributed by Colorado Springs Antifa and Eugene Antifa.

Identity Evropa member Master Sergeant Cory Reeves endorses anti-immigration sentiments

Cory Allen Reeves es miembro del grupo neonazi Nazi Identity Evropa, que se ha renombrado como American Identity Movement. Reeves es el coordinador del estado de Colorado y el "enlace del patrón" para el grupo. Es responsable de las calcomanías y folletos de Identity Evropa que han aparecido en Briargate, UCCS, Breckenridge y otras ubicaciones en Front Range. Cory Reeves es actualmente un Sargento Maestro de la Fuerza Aérea de los EE. UU. En la Base de la Fuerza Aérea Schriever. Como todos los supremacistas blancos, debe considerarse un peligro para la comunidad.

Cory Allen Reeves is a Master Sergeant with the US Air Force of the 50th Space Wing at Schriever Air Force Base located in Colorado Springs, Colorado where he also currently owns a home. Cory Reeves has been with the military since at least 2005, has been a member of Identity Evropa since at least October of 2017, and served as the Colorado state coordinator of Identity Evropa. Reeves was a "patron" member of Identity Evropa which meant he paid a monthly higher amount of dues than required. This extra monthly financial contribution to the white supremacist organization gave Reeves access to special communications and meetings reserved for patrons, leadership, and the advisory council. Reeves regularly posted white supremacist propaganda throughout Colorado, encouraged members to donate to the group beyond their $10 monthly dues, and coordinated actions, events, and meet ups locally and nationally.

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves attends the American Identity Movement's first action on March 10, 2019 in Nashville, Tennessee. He is pictured here holding the US flag.

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves registered for the 2nd annual Identity Evropa conference which took place in Kentucky on March 8, 9, 10 of 2019. At this conference, the organization announced that they were changing their name to the American Identity Movement (AmIM). When referring to the group, we will use the acronym "AmIM" since "AIM" is already taken by the American Indian Movement. By default, Identity Evropa membership rolled into the newly named group, and on the third day of the conference, the attendees participated in the first official action for the American Identity Movement in nearby Nashville, Tennessee. Cory Reeves continues to organize with this group under its new name.

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves aka 'Argument of Perigee CO' confirms his attendance to Sunday's action at the Tennessee capitol, and encourages members not to shy away from announcing they are with the group Identity Evropa while reserving lodging for their annual conference.

The rebranding of Identity Evropa has allowed the group to, among other things, recreate social media on platforms which have banned Identity Evropa. Facebook and Instagram have taken action against American Identity Movement, but Twitter continues to offer them a platform.

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves went by the username "Argument of Perigee" on the Identity Evropa Discord server which was recently leaked by Unicorn Riot. Reeves did, however, use his real name during his appearances on Patrick Casey's podcast, "Identitarian Action." Reeves is best known as the bald guy who has brazenly shown his face at a number of Identity Evropa actions in Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, Florida, New York, Kentucky, and Tennessee in the last year. Our efforts to identify him stretch back to last year.

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves pictured here with the two main leaders of Identity Evropa aka American Identity Movement

Prior to Reeves moving to Colorado Springs in April of 2018, Reeves was in Hawaii. As "Argument of Perigee CO," Cory tells us that during his time in Hawaii, he was the only Identity Evropa member there. Perhaps due to Reeves' racist and bigoted views, his wife of ten years dumped him for a Marine, and Cory found himself single before leaving Hawaii for Colorado once again. One might interpret that Reeves' white supremacist ideology was forming by at least 2015. In this interview by the local news, Cory is seen wearing a tshirt with neo-Nazi imagery- a common tactic used as a dog whistle for Right extremists.

Cory Reeves has a distinct tattoo on the inside of his left forearm.

I was the only IE member in Hawaii for a long time, then I departed for Colorado and we had none.

Schriever Air Force Base in Colorado Springs isn't the only AFB Master Sergeant Cory Reeves has been stationed at in Colorado. According to the post bulletin from Buckley Air Force Base, Reeves was stationed in Denver, Colorado at Buckley AFB in 2010. It is important to note that both of Reeves' units at Buckley AFB and Schriever AFB are incredibly specialized. They work with satellites. Reeves' handle in the Discord server, "Argument of Perigee," actually refers directly to satellites. Cory Reeves has one of the most sensitive and technical jobs in the Armed Forces outside of Special Operations Command. He most certainly has a security clearance, at least a Secret, but due to the nature of his work he might have a Top Secret clearance. Security clearances have become a hot topic lately, and people are right to be concerned about who has access to what information. To get a clearance, applicants go through a lengthy investigation process, which is more rigorous the higher the clearance.

If we're talking military/veteran stuff, I can speak about alot of that. I have accounts with USAA, Navy Federal Credit Union, & Pentagon Federal Credit Union. For credit cards, it all depends on how deep into the credit card game you want to go with perks and how disciplined you intend to be with it. It can get really interesting if you can qualify for an American Express Platinum Card as active military, because they waive the $550 annual fee—it is a charge card though, not a credit card.

I covertly utilize my efforts in IE on my performance report <:teehee:381917632359563264> .

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves alludes to his involvement in the military and even brags about using his Identity Evropa 'activism' in his Air Force Enlisted Performance Reports.

The US military, which as an entity has more financial, technical, and human assets than most countries, has been unable to determine that one of their most sensitive workers is a member of multiple extremist groups. We must re-examine these systemic blind spots that make rooting out white identity extremists a low priority. Master sergeant Cory Reeves is a huge liability to the armed forces. Cory Allen Reeves is an active duty member of the military. The military explicitly bans service members from affiliating with white supremacist organizations. Cory Reeves marks yet another active duty member of the military who was involved in Identity Evropa.

Master Sergeant Cory Reeves stood in front of a foreign ally's consulate in a racist protest sponsored by Identity Evropa. In these photos, Reeves can be seen in New York, in front of the Mexican Consulate, holding the letter 'H.' The full racist messaging spelled 'Build The Wall.'

Identity Evropa and the American Identity Movement aren't the only extremist organizations Reeves is part of. He is also a dues-paying member of the Oath Keepers. The crossover between Identity Evropa and the Oath Keepers isn't surprising, as we've warned about the potential for militia and neo-Nazi collaboration. With their re-brand, the American Identity Movement is aesthetically aligning themselves further with the militia and patriot movement. We will likely continue to see an overlap between "Identitarians" and "Patriots" fwiw, 10 or so years ago I ran long distances (30+ miles a day) and biked ultras (200+ a day) and then started focusing on lifting. I know that is excessive so don't do that but a) I feel so much better lifting even now as an old man and b) I receive so much more respect/attention (not in a vanity way) benching 350 than i even did biking 200 miles from men and women alike.

I haven't lived close to any of the significant issues they targeted for activism, so my membership has been extremely passive. Mostly just pay dues and read newsletters. I'm still active duty, so I can't really go do things with them very easily. @Deleted User

As a Master Sergeant, Cory Reeves is a bit far into his military career. As a senior non-commissioned officer, he should know better than to organize with these extremist groups. He bet his retirement, his GI Bill benefits, his security clearance (and with it, post-military employment) on the hope that he would never be identified. He was incredibly careful, but in the end he was caught. Antifascists will continue to disrupt racist and fascist organizing. Will Cory Reeves' family, co-workers, and neighborhood community be able to sway his white supremacist views?

Respectable, upstanding men of European heritage shouldn't be engaging in sexual relations with women of other heritage. Everyone has some sort of past which may be regrettable, but continuance of such activity is unbecoming of Identity Evropa members.

Cory Reeves expresses his disdain for 'race mixing'.

Colorado Springs has had its fair share of Identity Evropa propaganda, and a lot of it has appeared in the Briargate area, very close to Reeves' home. It now appears that Master Sergeant Cory Reeves is continuing his bad habit of littering the town with white supremacist propaganda; but, this time, the propaganda is stamped "American Identity Movement."
